

SURVAL MONTREUX

Dear Prospective Partner

Thank you for your interest in working with us. Surval Montreux is a unique international Boarding school for girls aged 12-19. Situated in an exceptionally beautiful location, our inspirational setting overlooking Lake Geneva to towering mountain peaks beyond is home to up to 60 girls.

We welcome the opportunity to work with established Partners with a reputation for their professionalism, expertise and excellent representation of school programmes. We select Partners who share our values.

If you would like to be considered as a valued Partner, please complete this form and return it to us with a list of other secondary institutions and Summer Camps that your company represents (including the approximate number of students sent annually to the institutions) and a brief marketing plan for the promotion of Surval in your identified market(s). Any information you give will be in confidence.
