GIRLS' SCHOOL IN SWITZERLAND

School Code of Conduct

We want each girl to enjoy her time at Surval and take full advantage of all the exciting things we offer. Please remember we are all here to help and to ensure that your time here is a positive and enriching experience.

Surval's core values are centred around Honesty, Openness, Courage and Curiosity. Living here together is based on Courtesy, Consideration and Care for each other.

Below are the principles we all live by:

- Surval does not tolerate bullying, harassment, racist language or other kinds of unacceptable behaviour.
- Students must assume responsibility for their personal safety. We do all that we can to create a safe environment for our students, but students must also play an active role in ensuring their own safety by being sensible, exercising caution and maintaining awareness of their surroundings.
- Surval does not tolerate any behaviour prejudicial to the health, safety or wellbeing of others or to the reputation of Surval.
- Theft is not tolerated – students must keep all valuable things in their personal safe.
- The possession and/or consumption of alcohol is forbidden unless a specific permission has been given. Alcohol tests may take place.
- Surval is a non-smoking school. Smoking anywhere on the school campus or during trips/excursions is strictly forbidden
- The possession, trafficking and/or use of drugs either at school or off campus will result in automatic exclusion. Drug testing may take place.
- We reserve the right to inspect or search rooms and personal belongings at any time. We exercise this right in the event of suspected theft, tobacco, alcohol or drug use or other serious concerns. In these cases, students' electronic devices may also be searched.
- Surval Montreux reserves the right to exclude students who do not follow this Code of Conduct.
